1. Introduction

Welcome to Killbot.to, the forefront of antibot solutions designed with the modern web in mind. Our platform combines cutting-edge technology with user-centric design to offer an unparalleled experience in visitor authenticity verification. In a digital age where security and privacy are paramount, Killbot.to stands as a beacon of trust, ensuring that our users can confidently discern genuine visitors from bots.

By accessing, browsing, or using our services, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms of Use and any future modifications. We encourage you to review this page periodically to stay informed about any changes.

Whether you are a business owner looking to secure your digital assets, a developer aiming to integrate our solutions, or just a curious visitor, we are delighted to have you on board. As you navigate through our offerings, these terms will guide our mutual responsibilities and set the expectations for a harmonious relationship.

2. Description of Services

We provide visitor authenticity verification services, allowing our users to discern bots from genuine users based on set parameters by users. Our system also enables user location tracking based on IP addresses and other related services.

3. Eligibility

You must be of legal age in your country to use our services. There are no country restrictions for our services.

4. Account and Security

Users are required to register with a username and password. All user data is encrypted on our servers. Users are responsible for maintaining the security of their account and ensuring their passwords are strong. Sharing of accounts is strictly prohibited.

5. Payments and Subscriptions

Payments are processed exclusively in crypto-currencies, including bitcoin (BTC) and litecoin (LTC). Subscriptions are automatically renewed if the user has sufficient funds. Renewal continues until account credits are exhausted. All credits deposited in the user's account are final and cannot be withdrawn.

6. Acceptable Use

6.1 General Use: Users are granted access to Killbot.to services based on the understanding that they will use the platform responsibly, ethically, and within the bounds of the law.

6.2 Prohibited Activities: Users are strictly prohibited from:

- Using our services for any illegal or unauthorized purpose, including but not limited to copyright infringement, fraud, or harassment.
- Attempting to disrupt or hack our services or any related platforms. Using our services to generate spam or unwanted promotional materials.

- Sharing, distributing, or publishing any content through our platform that is defamatory, obscene, invasive to another's privacy, or promotes harm or discrimination especially on the support page

6.3 Responsible Usage:

- Users should maintain the confidentiality of their account information, including passwords.
- It's the user's responsibility to ensure their use of our services does not infringe on the rights of third parties or violate any local, state, national, or international laws.

6.4 Consequences for Violations:

- Killbot.to reserves the right to suspend or terminate user accounts without prior notice for any violations of these terms.
- Users found violating these terms may be barred from future use of our services and may be subject to legal action

6.5 Reporting Violations: If you come across any activity or content that violates our Acceptable Use policy, please report it immediately to abuse@killbot.to. We are committed to ensuring a safe and respectful environment for all users and will take appropriate action in response to any reported violations.

7. Limitations and Liabilities

7.1 Service Availability: While we strive to provide uninterrupted and error-free service, Killbot.to does not guarantee that our services will always be available or free from defects. There might be occasions when our services are interrupted for maintenance, upgrades, or emergency repairs, or due to the failure of telecommunications links and equipment.

7.2 Data Accuracy: Killbot.to endeavors to ensure the accuracy of the data and services provided. However, we rely on complex algorithms and databases, and while we aim for precision, we cannot guarantee 100% reliability. Users should exercise discretion when relying on our services for critical purposes.

7.3 No Warranty: All services are provided "as is" and "as available" without any warranties of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement.

7.4 Compensation: In the event of service dysfunction, Killbot.to may, at its sole discretion, provide compensation to affected users in the form of account credits. This compensation will not exceed the equivalent of one month's subscription fee and will be the sole remedy available to users for any service disruption.

7.5 Limitation of Liability: To the fullest extent permitted by law, Killbot.to shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, or any loss of profits or revenues, whether incurred directly or indirectly, or any loss of data, use, goodwill, or other intangible losses, resulting from:

- Your access to or use of, or inability to access or use, our services;
- Any unauthorized access to or use of our servers and/or any personal information stored therein;
- Any errors or omissions in any content or data, or for any loss or damage incurred as a result of the use of any content or data posted, emailed, transmitted, or otherwise made available through our services.

7.6 Third-Party Links and Services: Our services may contain links to or integrations with other services provided by third parties. We are not responsible for the content, accuracy, or opinions expressed in such services, and such services are not investigated, monitored, or checked for accuracy or completeness by us.

7.7 Indemnification: Users agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Killbot.to, its parent company, officers, directors, employees, and agents, from and against any claims, actions, or demands, including, but not limited to, reasonable legal and accounting fees, arising or resulting from their breach of these terms or their misuse of our services.

8. Termination

Users may terminate their account by contacting us at contact@killbot.to. There are no fees associated with termination, but deposited credits cannot be withdrawn.

10. Data Privacy

All data cross-referencing is conducted using our in-house databases. For GDPR-related queries, or to request data deletion or access, please email contact@killbot.to.

11. Cookies

Cookies are small data files stored on your device when you visit a website. Killbot.to utilizes cookies primarily for authentication, ensuring that users remain signed in as they navigate through our site. By using our services, you consent to the use of these cookies. If you wish to opt-out or manage these cookies, you can adjust your browser settings, though please note that certain features of our platform might not work as intended without cookies.

12. Governing Law

Any disputes arising out of these terms will be governed by the jurisdiction of the user's location.

13. Contact

For any questions or concerns regarding these terms, please open a support ticket or email us at contact@killbot.to.
